

Cynthia Hamilton

Dies at Age of 82

17 July 1952

Mrs. Cynthia E. Hamilton, widow of Robert Hamilton, died Monday at the age of 82 in her home near Hamilton after a week's illness. She was a lifelong resident of the Hamilton section and was a member of the Methodist Church.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Joseph Sheasley Mathias, of West Virginia; Mrs. Guy Craft, of Rossiter, and Grace, at home; 11 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Elmer Dobson and Miss Margaret Adams, of Porter.

The deceased was born in Porter Township January 9, 1870, a daughter of Thomas B. and Jane Howard Adams.

Friends will be received after 7 o'clock this evening in the Morrison Funeral Home. Services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Methodist Church in Hamilton with the Rev. T. O. Fuss, of Philipsburg, officiating, and burial will be in the Hamilton Cemetery.